PASADENA ARTS COUNCIL FOLIO SPONSORSHIP

The Pasadena Arts Council offers sponsorship of FOLIO, its bimonthly publication featuring profiles on artists and local arts companies, articles on issues and trends in the cultural sector, and reviews of books and other media with an arts focus.

This 12-page, full-color arts journal is direct-mailed to a readership of 3000 targeted households in the Pasadena area. Subscribers are arts patrons and business leaders in the Pasadena area from the private and corporate sector, as well as government representatives, trustees, educators and individuals who value a vibrant creative community.

In addition, FOLIO is available and prominently displayed at better retail locations such as Vroman's Bookstore, Laemmle Theatre, galleries and arts outlets, and at arts organizations around the city.

All current and back issues of FOLIO are available to read or download on the organization's website, pasadenaartscouncil.org

Sponsorship guarantees a full page of the sponsor's text and artwork. Only one sponsorship page per issue is offered; no other advertising appears in the issue.
